DAVIS IS SCORED FOR LANDING SAILORS

Governor of Jamaica Objected to American Marines.

IN WORK OF CLEANING STREETS

The Governor's Action Is Wholly Disapproved by the Community—Much Suffering Will Result from Rear Admiral Davis' Departure.

New York, Jan. 22.—A special dispatch to The Times from Kingston, Jamaica, says that Governor Swettenham in addition to refusing aid from Rear Admiral Davis, has declined an offer sent by the war department of the United States to extend immediately to Kingston 10,000 rations which were intended for the troops in Cuba and would have been diverted here.

The governor's action, the Times' correspondent says, is wholly disapproved by the community, which highly appreciates the kindness of the Americans. As soon as it became known what had been done by Governor Swettenham and that the American ships, in consequence, were to leave, an emergency meeting of the city council was called.

The discussion showed that the governor's attitude towards the Americans did not meet with the approval of these officials and a letter to Admiral Davis was drafted and adopted in which the action of Sir Alexander Swettenham was wholly disapproved and the American government and officers were warmly thanked for the thoughtful, effective and timely aid they had given in the emergency. This letter was immediately dispatched.

Admiral Davis was also asked to remain in spite of the unfortunate incident. The request was dispatched to him and he made a reply in which he said that there was no misunderstanding with the Jamaican authorities, but he added significantly in reply to the request to remain.

As a foreign naval officer, I am bound to respect the wishes of the constituted authority of Jamaica, he said.

Up to the time of Admiral Davis' departure the situation was improving but the work has been much retarded by the action of the governor in declining further assistance by the Americans. Much suffering will result from their departure and the refusal of supplies.

Rear Admiral Charles H. Davis, whose offer of assistance for the earthquake sufferers was refused by Governor James Alexander Swettenham, of Kingston, is the man who received the surrender of the Port of Ponce when he was in command of the Dixie. His record in the American navy is a continuous succession of diplomatic triumph. He is second in command of the North Atlantic squadron.

His title as "grand commander of the Order of Isabella" was conferred by Spain in recognition of his services as personal conductor, as a representative of this government, of the Infanta Eulalie when she visited this country in 1893 as Spain's representative to the Columbian exposition.

Admiral Davis is a brother-in-law of Senator Lodge and after a friend of the president who informed this acquaintance while Roosevelt was a member of the civil service commission and living in Washington.

Rear Admiral Davis was selected as the American member of the international commission which met in Paris two years ago to inquire into the firing by Russia's battle fleet in the British fishing trawlers. Davis served as superintendent of the naval observatory at Washington for five years and has been on many ships of the navy through his various grades.

Sir James Alexander Swettenham, K. C. M. G., captain general and governor in chief of Jamaiac, has been in the colonial service of Great Britain for forty years. He is 61 [illegible] son of J. O. Swettenham, Derby. After graduating at Cambridge he entered the Ceylon civil service in 1868 and remained in various grades of Ceylon service for 15 years. He was auditor general of the island of Cyprus from 1884 to 1891 and auditor general of Ceylon from 1891 to 1895. Then he was made colonial secretary of Singapore, and from 1898 to 1900 was acting governor of the Straits Settlements. Then he went to British Guiana as governor and commander in chief, where he was kept until 1904.

Sir Alexander got his decoration and his knighthood for colonial service and then they sent him to Jamaica, where he arrived in the fall of 1904.

Governor Swettenham came in conflict with United States officials last October, when he refused to permit laborers to leave Jamaica to work on the Panama canal unless certain demands made by him were conceded. He refused to permit the recruiting of laborers unless 5 shillings per head was paid to the island government for the laborers and also the sum of $2,500 for the agents' license. After considerable discussion the demand was granted. The governor then insisted that the United States guarantee to compensate the laborers for any damage or injury they might sustain during their employment on the canal. This demand was positively refused.

Kingston, Jamaica, Jan. 22.—The banks have resumed payments, but no attempt has yet been made to restart business.

The car service has been resumed from the northern boundary of the city to St. Andrews. It was expected that a newspaper would be issued Monday.

The financial loss by earthquake and fire is now estimated at $15,000,000. Merchants fear that the insurance companies will not pay losses because of the earthquake clause in the policies.

New York, Jan. 22.—The feature of the news from Kingston, Jamaica, is the declination of Sir James Alexander Swettenham, the governor of Jamaica, to accept American aid and the departure in consequence of the American warships under command of Rear Admiral Davis. A dispatch from Santiago stated that the cruiser Marietta, which arrived Tuesday night at Santiago from Guantanamo had sighted Davis' ships making for Guantanamo Sunday afternoon. Official dispatches on the American rebuff should soon be forthcoming.

Swettenham's action appears not to have met the views of the people and the city officials of Kingston.

It is reported that the city council met after the incident became known promptly disapproved the English governor's action, and not only sent a letter of regret to Rear Admiral Davis, but asked him to reconsider his decision to leave and remain with the American ships as every aid was still urgently needed.

Davis replied that he had no alternative but to go in accordance with the desire of the constituted authorities.

English newspaper comment on the incident is unanimous in regretting the occurrence and in expressing the hope that the good relations existing between the United States and Great Britain will not be endangered thereby.

No official American comment had been forthcoming up to an early hour today, inasmuch as the American government had not been officially informed of Swettenham's action. Governor Swettenham's explanation of his course and the outcome of the incident are awaited everywhere with keen interest.

Washington, Jan. 22.—Rear Admiral Evans has notified the navy department of the arrival at Guantanamo of Rear Admiral Davis and the battleships Missouri and Indiana and the cruiser Yonkers [illegible] ston.

New York, Jan. [illegible] to the withdrawal of [illegible] warships from Kingston the Pall Mall Gazette this afternoon says that the language employed by Governor Swettenham would be difficult to justify in almost any circumstances."

At the same time the paper says it thinks "it is possible a praiseworthy desire to do his utmost in the cause of humanity pushed Admiral Davis beyond the necessities of the case and led him to encroach too far on the sphere of British authority."

The Pall Mall Gazette assumes that both the governor and the admiral were animated by the best of motives, expresses the opinion that "the abnormal conditions precluude their conduct being judged by ordinary standard" and adds:

"Englishmen certainly do not wish the misunderstanding to be magnified in any sense of pique and the American public ought to be broad-minded enough to regard it with the same charitable disposition."

The Westminister Gazette says there can be nothing but regret at the fact that any difficulty has arisen between Admiral Davis and Governor Swettenham and while awaiting a fuller explanation, adds:

"In the meantime the United States can be assured that we, in this country, deeply appreciate the generous, sympathetic way in which its citizens volunteered assistance to the British conoly."

END OF FLOOD NOW IN SIGHT

Losses and Suffering Will Continue For Some Time.

MANY BUILDINGS COLLAPSE

The River, However, Continues to Rise at Louisville, and Is Away Above the Danger Line—The Cold Weather Adds to the Misery.

Cincinnati, Jan. 22.—The Ohio river at this point has stood at 65.1 feet for several hours, and it is believed that the end of the flood is in sight.

It will recede very slowly, however, the immediate body of water below here holding back the flood and the losses and suffering will continue for some time. The slow recession of the water may reduce the amount of damage to property because of the less racking experience buildings will have to endure, but the cold weather which was hoped to stop the flood will be an occasion for greater suffering by those whose homes are in the flooded sections.

Many dwellings and other smaller buildings have collapsed under the pressure of the water, the high wind of Saturday night and Sunday having added materially to the damage in this respect.

Reports from Lawrenceburg and Aurora, Ind., which were threatened with destruction by the flood were that both towns were still safe on Monday morning, although the danger increases hourly.

At 10 o'clock Monady morning the water had crept up to 65.2 feet, or more than 15 feet above the danger line, and it was still rising slowly. Several fatalities have been reported, but it is possible some of those believed to be drowned may have escaped by being picked up down the river.

Three men in a small boat disappeared at this point Sunday night and no trace of them has as yet been discovered.

At Ripley, one man was reported drowned. Five dwellings and a saw mill were carried away by the flood at Higgins Point. Similar damage is threateped at many other points.

Louisville, Ky., Jan. 22.—The river continues to rise and the gauge registered 41.1 which is above the danger line. The Illinois Central is expected to suspend the running of trains into the Seventh street depot by noon, and the Louisville and Nashville is making preparations to start their trains to Cincinnati from the east Louisville depot as the water is running a foot deep over their tracks in the east end of the city and preventing trains from reaching the union depot at Tenth and Broadway.

The weather officials expect a further rise of something over a foot, and this will probably put the seventh street station out of commission. The cold weather has added to the misery of the homeless, who are existing in warehouses, school houses and other buildings.

The river continued its steady rise of an inch per hour during the morning. The cheering advices from above of a fall at points beyond Cincinnati led District Forecaster Waltz to make the statement that the crest of the flood will have passed Louisville in 24 hours. It is believed that a stage of 42 feet will be reached.

About two hundred and forty city blocks are submerged in Louisville in the territory running from the Country Club at the extreme eastern end of the city, to Parkland. There has been no loss of life, but suffering is acute on account of the cold.

The life-saving service received more calls during the morning to rescue people from homes than at any time since the situation became serious.

Sixty-five thousand bushels of coal in barges sank near the foot of Fourth street during the night. The barges were torn loose from their moorings at the upper end of the city. Fifteen empty barges were swept down stream by the current during the morning, and five of them striking the Pennsylvania railroad bridge went to the bottom.

St. Louis, Jan. 22.—A special to the Post-Dispatch from Shawneetown, Ill., says:

A statement of conditions prevailing in Shawneetown which is threatened with destruction by floods, has been made by Mayor Kratz. He stated that six hundred persons have fled from the town, including the members of his own family, who have gone to Evansville, Ind. Forty families, he said, are living in tents. All residents whose homes are still tenable are occupying the second stories, and business is at a standstill.

At 9 o'clock Monday morning the stage of the river reached 48 feet, said Mayor Kratz. "I believe the levee which protects the city from the Ohio river will hold until the stage reaches 53 feet. If that figure is recorded, we cannot tell what will happen. It has not rained here since Saturday, but the river is rapidly rising."

Inaugurate New Railroad.

City of Mexico, Jan. 22.—Monday five special trains left this capital carrying those who will participate in the inauguration ceremonies of the Tehuantepect National railroad. They will carry President Diaz, his cabinet, representatives of the press, the diplomitic corps, members of congress, state governors and many prominent men in the official and business life of the republic.

Charred Bodies Recovered.

Terre Haute, Ind., Jan. 22.—Twenty-two charred and mutilated bodies have been taken from the ruins of the passenger train No. 3 on the Cleveland, Cincinnati, Chicago and St. Louis (Big Four), which was destroyed by the explosion of a carload of powder as it passed a freight train at Sandford, 9 miles west of here on Saturday night. The number of injured will reach at least 135.

Ellen Terry, Actress, Arrives.

New York, Jan. 22.—Mrs. Ellen Terry, the actress, with her daughter, Miss Edith Craig, who is to be her stage manager, arrived Sunday on the Philadelphia. She will begin an engagement on Jan. 28 at the Empire theater in George Bernard Shaw's satirical play "Captain Brassbound's Conversion."

Dealers Enter Protest.

New York, Jan. 22.—Wholesale dealers [illegible] stones have opened a campaign against the fraudulent sale of imitation precious stones and information is being sent to retail jewelers throughout the country of a new method of distinguishing all glass imitations from genuine stones.

Thaw Trial Postponed.

New York, Jan. 22.—The trial of Harry K. Thaw, charged with the murder of Stanford White, was postponed Monday until Wednesday morning. Thaw was not brought into the court room.

REPUBLICAN SENATORS REACH AN AGREEMENT

On Substitute Resolution on the Brownsville Resolution

WHICH IS TO BE INTRODUCED

By Sen. Foraker, and It Is Asserted Will Receive the Unanimous Vote of the Majority Party—Wording of Resolution Not Yet Made Public.

Washington, Jan. 22.—An agreement was reached Monday by Republican senators on a substitute resolution on the Brownsville resolution which is to be introduced by Senator Foraker and it is asserted, will receive the unanimous vote of the majority party. The phraseology of the resolution will not be made public until actually offered in the senate, but it is said that in addition to providing for an investigation by the senate committee on military affairs of the facts connected with the affray at Brownsville, Tex., it carries a declaration that the committee shall not raise the question as to the president's right to discharge the negro soldiers alleged to have been involved in the outrage.

Senator Foraker did not give his consent to the compromise until today but inasmuch as he is to offer it, and it is not inconsistent with the position he has previously taken, he finally agreed to withdraw his objection. He was first given assurances, however, that the resolution would be supported by Senator Lodge and the unanimous strength of the Republicans in the senate. It is not certain whether Senator Blackburn will offer as an amendment to the new resolution, the amendment he presented to the pending resolution indorsing the president's course. If he does offer it the agreement by the Republicans would insure its defeat.

A Clearing House for Farmers.

Chicago, Jan. 22.—Years of dreams in which farmers have been themselves, thoroughly unionized dealing with the consumer in Chicago through the agency of local unions without assistance from the arbitrary middleman, are to be realized within thirty days. The plans for beginning the experiment here were practically completed by representatives of the American Society of Equity of the Farmers' Union at Sunday's meeting of the Chicago Federation of Labor. Under these plans the promoters of the scheme expect to bein a position within a month to ship to Chicago hay, butter and eggs and such other farm products as are to be found in the country at this season of the year. The Federation of Labor acting as the clearing house for the farmers' product is the scheme.

Live Stock Association.

Denver, Colo., Jan. 22.—"Four thousand live stock men wil be in Denver this week in attendance at the tenth annual convention of the American National Live Stock association, the meeting of the co-operative live stock commission company and the Western Live Stock show," said T. W. Tomlinson, secretary of the association today." The gathering which begins tomorrow, will be the largest we have ever had." Those who will deliver addresses include President Murdo A. McKenzie, S. H. Cowan, attorney of the American National Live Stock association, and Hon Giffort Pinchot Forester, United department of agriculture, Washington.

Chattanooga Lynching Case.

Washington, Jan. 22.—The contempt case of Sheriff Shipp and seval others charged with complicity in the lynching of the negro Ed Johnson, at Chattanooga, Tenn., the supreme court of the United States on Monday entered an order directing each of the 28 defendants to appear before the district court of Tennessee and enter into a personal recognizance for his personal appearance. The testimony in the case will be taken by a commissioner.

MR. CULPEPER HERE.

Began a Series of Meetings at Methodist Church Last Night—Big Crowd.

The announcement that Rev. J. B. Culpepper, the veteran Georgia evangelist, would appear in a series of meetings at the First Methodist Church last night was the signal for every church-goer to be present, with the result that the large auditorium was well filled.

Mr. Culpepper did not deliver a regular sermon, but talked in a varied manner from a reading of the scripture in a most interesting manner.

Mr. Culpepper visited Gainesville about seventeen years ago, when he worked to great spiritual advantage, several hundred having professed Christ and joined the Army of the Lord. He recalled those times, and said that he was glad the good Lord has spared him to come again. He looked over the sea of faces in the audience, and said he was glad, too, to recognize some of the faces, and grateful that God has spared them to welcome him again.

The meetings will be held twice daily, at 9 and 7:30 p. m., and a cordial invitation it extended to the public generally, who will hear something to interest them.

TWENTIETH CENTURY CLUB.

Interesting Meeting Was Held at Home of Mrs. Robb—Fine Program.

The Twentieth Century Club held a most enjoyable meeting with Mrs. Gross at the home of Mrs. Robb. About twenty members were present and a few visitors. The names of new members were given and will be voted on.

The meeting was called to order by the president, Mrs. L. C. Lynch, and the roll call by Mrs. W. S. Dorsey, recording secretary.

A musical selection was given by Mrs. Dorsey. Mrs. Chapin read a very instructive paper of "England's Colonial Possessions," which was followed by another musical treat by Mrs. Gross. Mrs. McBeath read an interesting account of Sidney Aus, then the discussion of England's colonies closed the meeting.

The invitation was given and accepted to meet with Mrs. Gracy, January 28.

Off to Cuba.

Dr. J. H. Post and Col. J. O. Andrews left Tuesday for Havana, Cuba, via Port Tampa. They will be accompanied by a party of a half dozen or more homeseekers, who will be recruited from various sections of the State.

From Havana, after a few days spent in that city, the party expects to invade the interior of the island, where they will visit many of the fertile plantations and ranches, with a view of locating.

Cuba appears to be offering extraordinary inducements in agriculture, horticulture and stock raising at this time, and it is probable that at least a few of this party will decide to make their future home there.

JUST THE TRUTH

Sallie Van Wick, Vice-Pres. of the Anderson Driving Club, Atlanta, says:

"Knowing how prevalent hard colds are at this season of the year, I want to tell the people of Gainesville my experience with Vinol, the best cod liver oil preparation in the world.

"I contracted a severe cold and cough, and tried different cod liver oil preparations and cough remedies; they only upset my stomach and gave no relief. I finally sent for my physician. He advised me to try Vinol. I found it was delicious to take, and did not upset my stomach, but it built up my general health, and made me feel stronger and better than I have for years.

"If Vinol does for Gainesville people what it did for me it will be worth $100 a bottle to them."

Our local druggist, W. M. Johnson, says: "The reason Vinol is so efficacious is because all the useless oil has been eliminated from the medicinal elements of cods' livers and tonic iron added, and we have never sold a remedy equal to Vinol for chronic coughs, colds and bronchial troubles or to build up a weak, run-down system, and we will return the money in every case where it fails to benefit."—W. M Johnson, Druggist.

NOTE.—While we are sole agents for Vinol in Gainesville, it is now for sale at the leading drug store in nearly every town and city in the country. Look for the Vinol agency in your town.

A PAINFUL ACCIDENT.

Horse Ran Into Hole, Throwing and Injuring Its Rider, E. K. Fagan.

As the result of being thrown from a horse on Monday, E. K. Fagan, the market man, sustained painful bruises about the limbs, which causes him to limp, and will likely give him considerable annoyance before he will feel himself again.

Mr. Fagan was engaged in "rounding up" some cattle near the city, when the horse he was riding stepped into a gopher hole or some other excavation. With a sudden lunge forward the animal fell with the rider, rolling upon Mr. Fagan. It was indeed a narrow escape, and the rider should feel fortunate that the accident was not more serious.

Bowling Alley Closed.

The bowling alley, which for the past two years has been a source of much exercise and considerable enjoyment from those disposed to develop their muscular propensities in that manner, has closed, and the resort will likely be missed by devotees of the sport. It has furnished a source of pleasure for many, who will in future be compelled to roll a truck, chop wood, or resort to something else to develop their muscles.

The room on the south side of the square which was occupied by the bowling alley will be remodeled and used by Ed Weston, it is understood for the present, as a moving picture resort.

Train 38 Delayed.

Train 38 of the Atlantic Coast Line, St. Petersburg to Jacksonville, due in Gainesville at 4 a. m., did not arrive until noon of Tuesday, being eight hours late. This delay, it is said, was caused by a "dead" engine, the engine having broken down just after leaving St. Petersburg.

This would have been an unnoticable occurrence, on account of its frequency, a month ago; but this division has performed its service very well since the holidays and it was thought there would no more serious trouble in this direction, since the management had promised to equip the division with new engines.

"MARTHA."

This Beautifully Tuned Opera to be Presented at Opera House Tonight.

The Andrews Grand Opera Company will tonight render one of the most toneful operas ever written, "Martha," which will delight all classes. "Martha" has been written over fifty years, and yet only a small portion of the general public have heard it sung, the reason for this being that the style adopted in writing it is that of telling the story in recitative, which makes it impossible for the average auditor to follow the thread of the story. This detracts greatly from the music and, therefore, this beautiful masterpiece has been relegated to that small number of grand operas which are only given in a few of the larger cities—once a year at the most, thus giving very little opportunity to hear this beautiful music. The opera has been revised and rewritten especially for this company, however, and the unsatisfactory and indistinct method of singing the story of the play in grand opera, as recitative, is thus done away with, and the story is now told in clever and amusing dialogue, which not only enables the audience to easily follow the plot, but leads up in a pleasing manner to the musical numbers, which have in no way been changed or omitted. In this way the opera, "Martha," retains all its beauty, and at the same time gains the attractiveness of the drama.

Curtain rises promptly at 8:30, and those not in their seats at that time will miss the opening, as well as disturb those who come on time.

Will Meet in New Hall.

The lodge room of the new Elks' club having been completed, the next meeting will be held in that room on Thursday evening.

While it will require some time yet to complete the other parts of the building, owing to scarcity of labor and other set-backs, the work of completion on the lodge room was shoved rapidly, and in future all meetings of the order will be held in the new home.

This will be not only one of the swellest Elk homes in the South, but one of the most up-to-date lodge rooms in the country. It is commodious, and was constructed especially for Elk work and Elk purposes, hence has been equipped with every modern appliance and convenience for the proper handling of the work.

A STATEMENT FROM DR. ARMSTRONG

The Well Known Eye and Nerve Specialist of Jacksonville.

It is a well known and established fact that 90 per cent of all headaches and nervous troubles are reflex conditions having their cause in eye strain. Although the eyes may seem perfect in their functions, there may exist some trouble that is latent and will cause many complications of the system and produce a strain upon the entire nervous system, thereby causing many chronic troubles to develop.

To locate these conditions, a new science, not taught in the old schools, has been perfected and is known as Ophthalmology. By this modern system, which I now practice exclusively, I straighten cross-eyes without operation, overcome all forms of eye trouble, and chronic and nervous derangements disappear within a very short time. I have accomplished excellent results in hundreds of cases throughout Florida.

I can be seen in Gainesville, in person, at the Brown House on Jan 23 4.

WOMEN IN HOSPITALS

Experiences of Mrs. Rockwood and Miss Tierney

MISS MARGARET TIERNEY MRS. CHAS. A. ROCKWOOD

A large proportion of the operations performed in our hospitals are upon women and girls for some organic trouble.

Why should this be the case?

Because they have neglected themselves, as every one of these patients in the hospital beds had plenty of warning in those dragging sensations, pains at left or right of abdomen, backaches, nervous exhaustion, inflammation, ulceration, displacements, and other organic weaknesses.

All of these symptoms are indications of an unhealthy condition of the female system and if not heeded the penalty has to be paid by a dangerous operation. When these symptoms manifest themselves, do not drag along until you are obliged to go to the hospital and submit to an operation—but remember that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from native roots and herbs, has saved hundreds of women from surgical operations.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has cured more cases of feminine ills than any other one remedy. Such letters as the following are constantly being received by Mrs. Pinkham to prove our claims.

Mrs. C. A. Rockwood, teacher of Parliamentary Law, of 58 Free St., Fredonia, N. Y., writes:

"For years I suffered with female trouble. It was decided that an operation was necessary, and although I submitted to a serious operation my sufferings continued, until Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound was recommended and it proved a marvelous remedy, so quickly did it restore my health. I cannot thank you sufficiently for the good it has done me."

Miss Margaret Tierney, of No. 328 W. 25th Street, New York, writes:

Dear Mrs. Pinkham:—

"When only eighteen years of age our physician decided that an operation was necessary to permit of my womanly organs performing their natural functions. My mother objected and being urged by a relative to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound did so. I soon improved in health, the proper conditions were established and I am well and strong, thanks to Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound."

No other remedy has such unqualified endorsement as Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. No other remedy in the world has such a record of cures of female ills.

Mrs. Pinkham's Standing Invitation to Women

Women suffering from any form of female weakness are invited to promptly communicate with Mrs. Pinkham, at Lynn, Mass. From the symptoms given, the trouble may be located and the quickest and surest way of recovery advised. Out of her vast volume of experience in treating female ills Mrs. Pinkham probably has the very knowledge that may help your case. Her advice is free and always helpful.

NEWS OF CITY AND COUNTY CONDENSED

Elam Glison and Bryant Alford of McRae, Clay county, were in the city yesterday, having come on business connected with the United States land office.

Arthur Doyle of Jacksonville is in the city. Arthur was for several years a traveling salesman who made his headquarters in Gainesville, but his territory having been changed, his friends here have less opportunity to see him. It is always their pleasure, however.

Miss Eloise Dowd of Arcadia, who has been here for some time as a guest of Misses Nellie and Mary DaCosta, returned to her home yesterday. Miss Dowd made many friends here who regretted to see her leave, but trust she will favor them with her presence again at no very distant day.

EFFECT OF THE COLD

On Fruit in DeSoto County Not As Bad As First Anticipated.

Among the visitors to this city and section for the past three or four days was Mert J. Main, for many years engaged in trucking at Rocky Point.

Mr. Main now resides at Nocatee, DeSoto county, and left Tuesday for his home. He owns at Nocatee a handsome orange grove of about fifteen acres which has come into bearing within the past couple of years, and which yielded the present season 800 boxes of choice fruit, with the prospect next season of from 1,200 to 1,500 boxes.

In speaking of the recent cold in his section, Mr. Main stated that the damage to the trees and fruit was not so bad as was at first anticipated, and that the growers as a rule are perfectly satisfied. None of the old trees were injured, but the budded trees and nursery stock suffered considerably, in proportion to the maturity. He had several thousand nursery trees which were badly damaged.

There was very little fruit injured, and the big packers have not lost a day on account of the cold wave. They have been constantly shipping, and the fruit as a rule has given good satisfaction and brought exceptionally good returns in many instances. The fruit on the old trees escaped any injury whatever, but the budded fruit suffered about eight to ten per cent.

While Mr. Main is well pleased with his new home, he declares he retains a warm spot in his heart for old Alachua county's green gardens and meadows, where he began his career as a trucker in Florida.

A Delightful Occasion.

In honor of Miss Ora Sue Mitchell of Atlanta, who is visiting in this city, Mrs. Joseph A. Ettel on Tuesday morning entertained at the home of her mother, Mrs. H. C. Denton, in a delightful card party.

There were only a limited number present, the occasion being in a manner an informal affair, with just enough formality to make it all the more pleasant. The new game of five hundred was the program, and it was played with a great deal of energy and interest. At the conclusion it was found that the prize had been won by Mrs. C. S. Robertson, who gracefully presented it to the guest of honor.

Delicious refreshments were served, and altogether the affair was a most delightful one. The guests are under many obligations to the clever hostess for a pleasant morning, and for the opportunity of meeting Miss Mitchell.

$60,000 Fire Loss.

Norfolk, Va., Jan. 22.—The most spectacular fire in the history of the city occurred Sunday, when a spark from a locomotive of the Norfolk and Western railway set fire to grass near the plant of the Atlantic Creosoting company, and, fanned by a 40-mile wind, the flames extended to the great lumber piles and oil tanks of the company, causing a loss of $60,000, and the probably fatal injury of gallons of creosoting fluid in the tanks exploded, and 2,500 barrels of the oil were consumed, together with several hundred thousand feet of creosoting timber and piling, valued at about $25,000.

Mastered the Q.

Hundreds of people have cured themselves of impediments in speech. One of last year's mayors as a young man used to find it almost impossible to pronounce words beginning with a "q." Every day for months he used to walk across St. James' park practicing this sentence aloud, "A quantity of quicksilver quietly quartered in a quagmire," until he conquered the impediment. Today he is one of the most fluent speakers in England.—London Tit-Bits.

Webster's Compliment.

While it is well known that Daniel Webster in speaking of General Taylor's candidacy for the office of president pronounced it "a nomination not fit to be made," he never failed to do justice to the general's military abilities and eminent service in the field. On one occasion he paid the old soldier a delicate and well deserved compliment. General Taylor was complaining of the crowds of people who daily besieged him soon after his accession to the presidency.

"They interfere," he said, "with my official engagements and violate my domestic retirement, but still I do not wish to turn my back upon my friends."

"You never did upon your enemies, general," Mr. Webster instantly replied.

The Snob.

The snob cultivates a man or a woman not because he expects to get a job or a loan out of either, but because he thinks either can help him along into society's elect. He cuts a former acquaintance because the unfortunate person seems to be of no use in his own social advancement. He suppresses the impulse that may lead him to dislike useful people and like useless ones just as the ambitious bank clerk suppresses his small extravagances, his fondness for the race track. Because social position seems so important to him he admires excessively those who have it and snubs those whose position he deems inferior to his own.—New York Mail.

The Letter A.

The letter A is in Hebrew called aleph, an ox, and the Phoenician character which represents this sound was originally a picture of an ox head; hence the name. The right hand stroke of the A represents the top of the head, the other down stroke the left side, and a line, since fallen out of use, represented the right side of the head, while in very old Phoenician manuscripts two dots above for eyes and two below for nostrils rendered the resemblance complete.

Bachelor Ignorance.

"Aren't men the limit?" said young Mrs. Wheel. "When I told my brother this morning that baby had just cut a tooth, he asked me savagely why I had allowed it to play with knives."

"And my bachelor uncle," said Mrs. Whoa, "when he heard that my baby had begun teething, wanted to know if it would begin hairing soon."—New York Press.

certainly smashed a hole in the barrooms of Kansas, but Ballard's Horehound Syrup has smashed all records as a cure for coughs, bronchitis, influenza and all pulmonary diseases. T. C. H—, Horton, Kansas, writes: "I have never found a medicine that would cure a cough so quickly as Ballard's Horehound Syrup. I have used it for years." Sold by W. M. Johnson.

Confused the Elevator Man.

New York elevator operators have a dislike of the word "next."

"It is too confusing," said one man. "For example, two men stepped into my car the other day. One said, 'Fifth floor.' The other said, 'Next.' I stopped at the second floor and waited and waited for the man who had ordered 'next' to get off. He flew into a rage. 'I don't want this floor,' he said. 'I said the sixth floor. Didn't the other fellow say "Fifth," and didn't I say "Next," and isn't sixth next after fifth? Huh?'

"The following day one passenger called out, 'Third floor,' and the other said 'Next' at the same time. I thought I knew my business that time. I hustled the third floor man right up to his landing and took the chap who wanted 'next' on to the fourth floor. He was angry also. 'What did you bring me up here for when I wasn't looking?' he thundered. 'Didn't you hear me say next?' 'Yes,' said I, 'but the other man said third'— 'I don't give a rap,' said he, 'what the other man said. We were then on the first floor, and when I said next didn't that mean second? I'll report you for inattention, that's what I'll do.'

"And that is what he did do," sighed the operator. "Clearly the word 'next' ought to be abolished."—New York Sun.

The Old Fashioned "Hired Girl."

The "hired girl" (we never, never alluded to her as "the maid" in the small American town or quiet country place where you and I were "raised") was like one of the family, and mother was glad to have her help, and none of us put on any frills with her, and she was not compelled to put on any frills of cap or apron with us. Ofttimes, especially in the quiet country places, her social standing was as good as that of anybody else. Usually she was one of a grown family of girls. There was plenty of help at her house, and so she came and assisted our mother at our house. In their hours of ease mother and she discussed the neighborhood gossip together. The "hired girl" had her beau, a neighbor's stolid, sheepish son, and much was she joked about him, and finally, after years of faithful and friendly servitude, she married him. We went to the wedding, and it was quite a social affair, with much temperate merriment and with many cheap but useful presents.—Everybody's Magazine.

The Corpse Plant.

The corpse plant is a remarkable carnivorous specimen that grows in the colony of Natal. Its principal feature is a bell shaped mouth, with a throat opening into a hollow stem. It is almost black and covered with a thick, glutinous secretion, while its odor is very offensive. This attracts carrion feeding birds to it, and once they alight on it they are lost. Their claws become entangled in the secretion, the bell shaped mouth folds up, and they are literally swallowed.

Costliest of All Fish.

The fish was no bigger than a silver dollar. Its color was bright gold, and it had a beautiful bushy golden tail.

"That," said the pet stock dealer, "is the finest aquarium fish in the world, a Chinese brush tailed goldfish. It is handsome, healthy and long lived. A good brush tailed goldfish," he concluded, "costs $250 or $300 and some fine specimens have sold for as much as $700 apiece."

Good Some Other Time.

"Just as Jack was about to kiss me last night father walked into the room."

"What did you do?"

"I gave Jack a rain check."—Milwaukee Sentinel.

Guards Shoot and Kill a Negro Lurking About the Ruins of Bank.

Beaufort, S. C., Jan. 22.—Murmurings of negroes on Sunday caused much apprehension of an uprising, and the authorities at once sought to secure military protection for the city. The intendent telegraphed Colonel R. W. Patterson, in command of Fort Screven, Ga., asking for a company of regular troops, to be dispatched here for the preservation of order. In response, at 8:35 o'clock Sunday night 45 men fully armed and equipped for service, arrived under command of Captain Joseph Wheeler. The detachment came on the tug Gibbons, and immediately guards were established and patrols formed.

The discontent among the negroes which it was feared might be fanned into a fury, was caused by the killing of William Bennett, a negro, by a guard at 1 o'clock Sunday morning. The negro was discovered hanging about the ruins of the People's bank, one of the buildings destroyed by the disastrous fire on Saturday. To the challenge of the guard on duty there, no satisfactory response was made, it seems, and the guard fired.

An inquest was held over the body of the negro. There was doubt as to which of the guards had shot the man. The verdict returned was that he had come to his death at the hands of parties unknown to the jury.

The arrival of the United States troops relieved the apprehension of the citizens. The negros, impressed by the presence of the regulars, have ceased their hostile demonstrations, and the military apparently have the situation well in hand. Their arrival was welcomed by the citizens who had been standing guard over valuables saved from the flames, and who had been prepared to resist as they might have been able, any outbreak on the part of the negroes.

Why

should your baby suffer? When he is fretful and restless don't experiment on him and use any old thing your neighbor recommends. Buy a bottle of White's Cream Vermifuge, greatest known medicine and cure for all children's diseases. It is mild in its action, builds up the system, makes thin puny babies fat. Mrs. J. C. Smith, Tampa, Fla., writes: "My baby was thin and sickly, could not retain its food and cried all night. I used one bottle of White's Cream Vermifuge and in a few days baby was laughing, happy and well." Sold by W. M. Johnson.

Prince Escaped After Arrested.

St. Petersburg, Jan. 22.—It was announced in a dispatch received from Seoul, Korea, that acting under orders from the authorities at Tokio, the Japanese at the Korean capital recently tried to arrest Pring Ming, brother of the late Queen of Korea, on the charge of complicity in the insurrection in the southern part of the country. The prince escaped, but his lodgings were occupied by the police and his papers were secured.

of living is to have good health. Use Herbine and you will have bushels of joy. You need not be blue, fretful and have that bad taste in your mouth. Try a bottle of Herbine, a positive cure for all liver complaints. E. Harrell, Austin, Texas, writes: "I have used Herbine for over a year, and find it a fine regulator. I gladly recommend it as a fine medicine for dyspepsia." Sold by W. M. Johnson.

General Shelley Passes Away.

Birmingham, Ala., Jan. 22.—General Charles M. Shelley died here Sunday after a lingering illness. He was operated upon for cancer of the stomach several weeks ago and never recovered from the shock. He was born in 1833, in Sullivan county, Tennessee, and served through the civil war, being a brigadier general in the confederate army. General Shelley served four terms in congress, while he was living in Selma, Ala. He has been prominent in political affairs of the state since the war. He leaves a daughter, Miss Elizabeth Shelley, and a son, Lieutenant J. E. Shelley, and a son, Lieutenant J. E. Shelley, of the United States army, who is now stationed in Cuba.

Cured of Lung Trouble.

"It is now eleven years since I had a narrow escape from consumption," writes C. O. Floyd, a leading business man of Kershaw, S. C. "I had run down in weight to 135 pounds, and coughing was constant, both by day and by night. Finally I began taking Dr. King's New Discovery, and continued this for about six months, when my cough and lung trouble were entirely gone and I was restored to my normal weight, 170 pounds." Thousands of persons are healed every year. Guranteed at all drug stores. 50c and $1. Trial bottle free.

Was Accidentally Shot.

Sanderville, Ga., Jan. 22.—Alma Kelly, young son of Hon. R. A. Kelley, of Tennille, was accidentally shot in Lee Doolittle's store here. Charlie Whiddon, a young man, who clerked in Mr. Doolittle's store was handling what he thought was an empty revolver, when, to his great surprise, there was a flash and a ball penetrated young Kelley's abodmen. At a late hour the extent of the wound had not been fully determined. Both young men are prominent and are the best of friends.

BUFFALO SWEPT BY GREAT GALE

Damage to Property Is Estimated at $1,500,000.

Buffalo, N. Y., Jan. 22.—A terrific gale, which blew 90 miles an hour at times, has swept this city for 18 hours, and has done $1,500,000 damage to shiping.

Five large lake liners, wintered just inside the breakwater wall, were torn loose from their mooring and driven aground. The gale still rages, and no aid can be given to the endangered vessels. They are believed to be resting on soft bottom, and unless the gale becomes worse, will probably not suffer more damage.

For hours the gale swept the water front, tearing everything that stood in its path. Docks and wharves were wrecked and carried away; craft broken from their moorings smashed against bridges, doing serious damage. So far no casualties have been reported.

A Thousand Dollars Worth of Good.

A. H. Thurnes, a well known coal operator of Buffalo, O., writes: "I have been afflicted with kidney and bladder troubles for years, passing gravel and stones with excruciating pain. I got no relief from medicine until I began taking Foley's Kidney Cure; then the result was surprising. A few doses started the brick dust like fine stones and now I have no pain across my kidneys and I feel like a new man. It has done me $1,000 worth of good." J. W. McCollum & Co.

Was Robbed of $6,000.

Little Rock, Ark., Jan. 22.—Chas. F. Hartley, a retail grocer of New Albany, Ind., was robbed of $6,000 by four pickpockets while stepping from a Rock Island train here at 4 o'clock this afternoon. Two arrests have been made.

REPUBLICAN FACTIONS.

The Third Term League, with headquarters in The Tribune building, Chicago, is sending out literature urging the people to renominate President Roosevelt in spite of his refusal to run. The State of Indiana has been flooded with letters from the League, asking the voters to join the League and express their determination to elect delegates favorable to the third term. This invasion of the Fairbanks stronghold is being resented by his friends, and Mayor Bookwalter of Indianapolis and others have sent replies saying they are not for President Roosevelt for a third term, but for Mr. Fairbanks. Our Republican friends seem to be much split up and are divided into two hostile factions, who are quite as much opposed to each other as they are to the Democrats. In fact, many Republicans in both factions declare they would sooner see a Democratic President elected than the success of their opponents in their own party. Democrats can view these disagreements with equanimity and should learn the lesson that to succeed they must ignore factions in their own party and unite on the essential truths of Democracy with the determination to support any good man who shall be nominated. "Get together" should be the slogan, leaving the Republicans to fight about third terms and the numerous "isms" that party cannot free itself from.

WHITHER ARE WE DRIFTING?

Upton Sinclair welcomes President Roosevelt as the greatest living Socialist and declares that Harriman is aiding Socialism by merging the transportation lines of the country under one management, which the Socialists believe will make it easier for the people to acquire them. But the question is, do the people of the United States want to acquire all the transportation lines and all the means of production and embark on the Socialist program which would make us servants of the State, instead of free agents? Although President Roosevelt is a friend of Mr. Sinclair, it will require more evidence than has so far been forthcoming to make the American people believe that he is rushing them into a Socialistic vortex from which there is no retreat. But it is a good time for all patriots to take stock of the leaders of parties and the principles the parties endorse and arrive at a just conclusion on "Whither are we drifting?" Municipal ownership of public utilities is sufficient for the present, at least.

"Mr. Harriman's appetite is improving," so a Philadelphia contemporary states. Last week Mr. Harriman was only able to assimilate a few side-tracks and short lines; now he can dispose of an entire trunk line before breakfast, with ease and dispatch.

Congress has decided that hereafter the "late unpleasantness" shall be known as the "civil war," instead of the "war of the the rebellion." The President has probably not decided on a name for the present unpleasantness in the Senate.

The enthroned trusts which control sugar and tobacco seem more powerful with the Republican majority of Congress than the people. The Philippine tariff bill is hung up and we are still collecting 75 per cent of the enormous Dingley tariff tax, which has to be paid by the people of the Philippines or the American people in increased prices of sugar and tobacco.

BEES IN WARFARE.

Two Instances In Which the Insects Were Used as Weapons.

History records two instances in which bees have been used in warfare as weapons against besieging forces. The first is related by Appian of the siege of Themiscyra, in Pontus, by Lucullus in his war against Mithridates. Turrets were brought up, mounds were built, and huge mines were made by the Romans. The people of Themiscyra dug open these mines from above and through the holes cast down upon the workmen bears and other wild animals and hives or swarms of bees.

The second instance is recorded in an Irish manuscript in the Bibliotheque Royale at Brussels and tells how the Danes and Norwegians attacked Chester, which was defended by the Saxons and some Gallic auxiliaries. The Danes were worsted by a stratagem, but the Norwegians, sheltered by hurdles, tried to pierce the walls of the town when "what the Saxons and the Gaeidhil who were among them did was to throw down large rocks, by which they broke down the hurdles over their heads." What the others did to check this was to place large posts under the hurdles.

What the Saxons did next was to put all the beer and water of the town into the caldrons of the town and boil them and spill them down upon those who were under the hurdles, so that their skins were peeled off. The remedy which the Lochlans applied to this was to place hides outside on the hurdles. What the Saxons did next was to throw down all the beehives in the town upon the besiegers, which prevented them from moving their hands or legs from the number of bees which stung them. They afterward desisted and left the city.

DORMOUSE DELICACIES.

Titbits That Were Relished In Ancient Roman Times.

Brawn was originally a Roman dish and was eaten with garum, and cow's and calf's foot jellies were likewise dainties with Rome's upper ten in the time of the Caesars. One would hardly suppose that black puddings were so old as the reign of Tiberius, but this is the fact. They were made of pig's blood, with little cubes of fat interspersed in the compound, and were the invention of a gentleman who rejoiced in the name of Bambonselvergius. It was he who invented all kinds of sausages—that is, meat stuffed into skins, which, we take it, is the ground plan, so to speak, of a sausage.

This gentleman also wrote a learned treatise on the fattening of dormice for the table, for at one period dormice were a craze. There were dormouse soup, dormouse sausage, dormouse brawn, dormouse cooked in every conceivable way, and the demand for this delicacy in prize sizes was so great that there was room for a book on the subject, though unfortunately this book is lost to posterity, and the only knowledge which we have of the fattening of dormice in Rome is from Petronius Arbiter, who tells us that they became fat by sleeping.

He also tells us that the best sauce to eat with dormouse is a mixture of poppy seed and honey, a mixture which probably had the merit of inducing sleep after a meal.

A Mother's Argument.

"The most to be regretted act of my life," says a commander of the navy, "was a letter I wrote to my mother when about seventeen years of age. She always addressed her letters to me as 'my dear boy.' I felt at that time I was a man, or very near it, and wrote saying that her constant addressing me as a 'boy' made me feel displeased. I received in reply a letter full of reproaches and tears. Among other things, she said: 'You might grow to be as big as Goliath, as strong as Samson and as wise as Solomon; you might become ruler of a nation or emperor of many nations, and the world might revere you and fear you, but to your devoted mother you would always appear in memory in your innocent, unpretentious, unself conceited unpampered babyhood. In those days when I washed and dressed and kissed and worshiped you, you were my idol. Nowadays you are becoming part of a gross world by contact with it, and I cannot bow down to you and worship you, but if there are manhood and maternal love transmitted to you, you will understand that the highest compliment that mother love can pay you is to call you "my dear boy."'"

Odd Bookmarks.

A Newark librarian has kept a record of odd bookmarks found in returned books. The record includes an insurance policy, a two dollar bill, a pair of spectacles, love letters, a will, a mortgage, photographs, a marriage certificate, a promissory note, dress samples and a hare's foot.

Then She Got Furious.

She—Here we've been married just one month, and now you no longer love me. He—But, my dear— She—Don't try to explain. I'm not blind. You made me believe I ought to have married

UNPROFITABLE FEEDING

Intelligent stock raisers know that a certain amount of feed is necessary to keep an animal alive. They might feed that amount as long as it lives, and it would never gain a pound.

There is no profit in that kind of feeding. The kind that pays is the kind that builds flesh rapidly. If it takes twenty pounds of food each day to keep a sheep alive, twenty-five pounds a day will make it gain flesh. It's the extra five that brings the profit. The first five pounds amounts to nothing, nor does the second or third or fourth five pounds.

It's the same way with advertising. You have to do a certain amount to overcome the resistance of the public.

You have to do a certain amount of advertising to make them wake up to the fact that you are in business at all. You have to pay a certain amount to keep your advertising alive. What you pay above that amount brings profit.

Some advertisers fail because they do not use enough space. They use barely enough or sometimes not quite enough to make the advertising self sustaining. A little bit more would make it profitable. It is better to advertise a little too much than not quite enough.—Charles Austin Bates.

Some of our advertisers could enlarge their space with profit.

SHIP SCOURGED BY BERI BERI.

Norwegian Bark Reaches Savannah from Quarantine at Sapelo.

Savannah, Ga., Jan. 22.—Showing effects of terrible experiences, 13 of the crew of the Norwegian bark Medbor, which foundered near Sapelo two weeks ago, reached Savannah Sunday afternoon from the quarantine station on Sapelo, where they had been detained because of beri beri among them. Two of the crew had died.

The Madbor sailed from Port Natal some months ago. Captain Carl Tellefsen was in command. The bark reached Cujo, Mexico, with five sick with beri beri. They were put in a hospital at Progresso, but the captain was almost immediately thereafter made to take them away, despite his protests. He was made to sail, he says, and in a few days Second Mate Peter Avinson died.

The vessel, on the way to England, was wrecked on Sapelo. The crew was rescued by an oyster sloop, the crew of which two had to remain in quarantine, where Seaman Carlson died.

CUT FACE OPEN WITH KNIFE.

The Blade Was Driven With Most Terrific Force.

Columbus, Ga., Jan. 22.—While he was holding his baby in his arms, Lester Henderson, a young man of Girard, Ala., was cut from temple to jaw by George S. Smith, in this city. The knife, which was curved at the end, and driven with terrific force by Smith, laid the whole side of the face open, going to the bone, and at one place cutting through to the mouth.

The deed occurred on the street in the presence of Mrs. Henderson, and Henderson, who was holding the child, was powerless to defend himself. The cause of the trouble is not known. Smith claims that Henderson called him out of his house and started the difficulty. Witnesses say that Smith drew a pistol on the other man after slashing his face. Smith was afterwards arrested in Columbus.

Wise Counsel From the South.

"I want to give some valuable advice to those who suffer with lame back and kidney trouble," says J. R. Blankenship, of Beck, Tenn. "I have proved to an absolute certainty that Electric Bitters will positively cure this distressing condition. The first bottle gave me great relief and after taking a few more bottles I was completely cured—so completely that it becomes a pleasure to recommend this great remedy." Sold under guarantee at all drug stores. Price 50c.

Complaint Made to President.

Rio De Janeiro, Jan. 22.—A complaint regarding the manner in which the coffee convention was being enforced was made to the president on Saturday by a committee of coffee growers. They stated that the new law allowed only the quotation of higher brands of coffee, while inferior ones remain without sale. The president replied that the law could only be modified by an act of congress.

Marietta, Ga., Lady Badly Hurt.

Marietta, Ga., Jan. 22.—Mrs. Dyson, wife of John Dyson, a contractor, was very painfully, if not fatally injured in a runaway accident here Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock. The lady was coming to the city in a hack when the horse reached Powder Springs and became frightened at a bicycle and commenced running. Upon nearing the public square Mrs. Dyson attempted to jump. She fell, striking on her face, and the wheels of the hack ran over her. She was carried to the store of Dyson Bros., and medical aid summoned. The horse made five complete trips around the square before he was stopped.

How to Avoid Pneumonia.

We have never heard of a single instance of a cold resulting in pneumonia or other lung trouble when Foley's Honey and Tar has been taken. It not only stops the cough, but heals and strengthens the lungs. Ask for Foley's Honey and Tar and refuse any substitute offered. Dr. C. J. Bishop of Agnew, Mich., writes: "I have used Foley's Honey and Tar in three very severe cases of pneumonia with good results in every case." J. W. McCollum & Co.

Observe McKinley Birthday.

New York, Jan. 22.—The Carnation League of America has sent out a special appeal to all patriotic men and women to observe the birthday of William McKinley by wearing a carnation, the favorite flower of the murdered president. "Carnation day" comes on January 29, when McKinley would have been 65 years old. The league was established in 1903, and has among its trustees President Roosevelt and some of the cabinet officers and United States senators.

The Right Name.

Mr. August Sherpe, the popular overseer of the poor at Fort Madison, Ia., says: "Dr. King's New Life Pills are rightly named; they act more agreeably, do more good and make one feel better than any other laxative." Guaranteed to cure biliousness and constipation. 25c at all drug stores.

Negro Children Cremated.

Columbus, Ga., Jan. 22.—Two negro children, aged 4 years and 18 months old, were burned to a crisp in a building destroyed by fire here Monday morning at 8 o'clock. The charred remains were found by the firemen, who burst open the door to the burning building, which had been locked and the two children left in a room by their mother at 5 o'clock, with a fire burning in the open fireplace.

How to Cure Chilblains.

"To enjoy freedom from chilblains," writes John Kemp, East Otisfield, Me., "I apply Bucklen's Arnica Salve. Have also used it for salt rheum with excellent results." Guaranteed to cure fever sores, indolent ulcers, piles, burns, wounds, frost bites and skin diseases. 25c at all drug stores.

Who Gets Your Vote?

"Do you see that man there?" remarked a barber to a customer in his chair. "Well, he has had one and the same job for the past forty-seven years and has been married all that time, and his wife has never at any time during that period known what salary her husband was getting. The wife gets so much a week and no more and has never been able to learn what amount of money her husband has been receiving in exchange for his labor. Now, what bothers me is which should have the diamond medal—I say diamond, as in this case the finest would seem to be needed—the man for being able to so long baffle a woman's curiosity or the woman for surviving so long an unsatisfied curiosity."—Columbus Dispatch.

Cheering Tommy Up.

The obstacles which beset the pathway of a photographer when he endeavors to secure "a pleasant expression" are many, particularly when his sitters are of a tender age.

"I do not believe whipping does children a particle of good," said Mrs. Green, returning flushed and discouraged from a visit to the photographer with her Tommy. "Here I've spent over an hour in that hot room trying to make this child look pleasant. I've slapped his hands twice, and he looked crosser each time than he did before."—Youth's Companion.

ONE WAY OF DEALING WITH JUVENILE CRIMINALS.

A Fearful Duel.

The most terrible duel fought at any time in Paris was the one between Colonel D., an old Bonapartist officer, and M. de G. of the Gardes du Corps, a mere youth, but of herculean strength. The two men, lashed together so as to leave their right arms free, were armed with short knives, placed in a hackney coach and driven at a tearing gallop around the Place de la Concorde. They were taken out of the coach dead. The colonel had eighteen stabs, the youth only four, but one of these had pierced his heart.

Wilbur McCoy, land and immigration agent of the Atlantic Coast Line, who makes his headquarters in Jacksonville, was in the city yesterday on business connected with the United States land office.

Among the prominent visitors to this city yesterday was Judge R. McConathy of Ocala, formerly county judge of Marion county. Judge McConathy was here on business connected with the United States land office and the Alachua County Abstract Company.

On account of a big convention of the Baptist church, colored, at Ocala, Ticket Agent Goodwin of the Atlantic Coast Line enjoyed a tremendous patronage from colored people on the southbound train who were going to the convention yesterday, having disposed of nearly a hundred tickets for this point.

C. S. Robertson, the clever and efficient traveling solicitor for the Armour Car Lines, left yesterday for Clearwater, St. Petersburg and other points in the interest of his line. Mr. Robertson states that the Armour lines have considerable business yet throughout South Florida, if it is possible to secure a movement.

Jesse C. Clark, the clever and successful representative for Florida, Georgia, Alabama, Mississippi and other Southern States for the Roundtree Trunk and Bag Factory of Richmond, Va., has returned from Richmond, where he has been to arrange his spring line. Mr. Clark expects to start on his regular spring tour in a few days.

Dr. Rice and Hon. E. A. Copeland of Greensboro, Ga., were in the city for awhile yesterday. They were en route to Crystal River, in the vicinity of which place they have established, with other friends, an annual camp. Mr. Copeland is a banker, while Dr. Rice is a prominent physician of the Georgia town. They are personal friends of J. A. Goodwin, and stopped over to spend a short time with him.

The Earnest Workers Society of the Presbyterian church desire to announce that, notwithstanding every effort has been made to secure oysters for the supper today, it has been impossible to get them. The chowder will be prepared in tempting style, however, and ice cream will be served in addition. The supper will be served in the store recently vacated by Mrs. LeGrande, west side square, from 4 to 9 p. m.

G. E. Burnett of Alachua was in town Tuesday and made The Sun an agreeable call, renewing his subscription to Alachua county's representative newspaper. Mr. Burnett is one of those substantial farmers who lives at home and boards at the same place. Probably no man in the county has bought less meat during the fifteen years he has been keeping house. He raises everything on his farm necessary for food except coffee and tea, and those articles are not really necessities.

Conductor G. Heyward Young, the popular bell-cord yanker on the Atlantic Coast Line between Croom and Brooksville, has arrived in the city, and is a guest of relatives here for a few days. Mr. Young, who is well known here, has been elected a member of Gainesville Lodge of Elks, and inasmuch as it is rumored something important will happen in his career in a few days, after which he will go on a tour with a companion, he is desirous of having the mysteries of the order exemplified to him before he takes this step.

Rev. Crawford Jackson, who is here in the interest of the erection of a protective school near Atlanta, Ga., for the wayward youth, seems to be meeting with very good success. The purposes and objects of this association have been told in the The Sun before, hence it is useless to review them. It is only necessary to state again that this association will be composed of ten Southern States, all of whom will share the privilege of placing their respective subjects under the care and protection of the association, which will, by the proposition offered, conduct an industrial home.

The Earnest Workers Society will give a fish chowder in the vacant storeroom on the west side of the square from 4 to 9 this evening for the benefit of the building fund of the Presbyterian church. Deepwater fish were ordered specially for this occasion, and Judge Carlisle will prepare the chowder as only one of his experience in that line knows how to prepare it. Turn out and help the ladies in a good cause and at the same time get your money's worth. If you relish good fish chowder you should not miss this one, and if you have never tasted it now is your opportunity to learn how good it is.
